Purposes and legal basis of data processing:
- Preventive (personal) protection of employees and temporary workers of Robert Bosch AG against criminal offences (personal protection prevention)
- Preventive protection of the property of Robert Bosch AG as well as the property of employees and temporary workers (property protection prevention)
- Enlightenment of already committed and imminent criminal offences (e.g. burglary and vandalism) (enlightenment and preservation of evidence)
- Ensure that only authorized persons enter the company premises during and outside working hours.
Legal basis: legitimate interests of Robert Bosch AG pursuant to Art. 6 Abs. 1 lit. f GDPR

Legitimate interests that we pursue:
Prevention, preservation of evidence and enlightenment of criminal offences against a person or the property of Robert Bosch AG on the plant premises. Ensuring that only authorized persons enter the plant premises as well as the identification of these persons.

Storage time or criteria for determining the duration:
The video surveillance image data shall be stored for a maximum period of 72 hours and the access control data (first and last name, date of birth, company, access data, license plate) shall be stored for a period of one year on a server of Robert Bosch AG. The data remain stored beyond this period if it is required for concrete reasons for the realization of the purposes of protection or preservation of evidence or for handling them over to the respective competent authority or the respective competent court or a security authority. Afterwards the data will be irretrievably overwritten or deleted.

Recipients or categories of recipients of the data:
- Employees of Robert Bosch AG who work in the area of factory security/factory safety
- Parties involved in the investigation of incidents where there is a legal basis (e.g. members of workers council, injured person, insurance company)
- Competent authorities and competent courts in the course of (investigation) proceedings
- Robert Bosch AG uses the services of ÖWD Österreichischer Wachdienst security GmbH & Co KG, Bayerhamerstr. 14c, A-5020 Salzburg as processor in accordance with Art. 28 GDPR for the collection of your data in the context of access control.
References to the rights of the persons concerned pursuant to Art. 15 ff. GDPR

As a data subject, you have the right to obtain confirmation from us about whether or not your personal data relating to you is being processed and if this is the case, you have the right to access to your personal data.

You have the right, as far as the legal requirements are fulfilled, to demand the rectification of inaccurate personal data concerning you and, if necessary, the completion of incomplete personal data from us.

You have the right to request the erasure of your personal data if the legal requirements are fulfilled, e.g. if the data is no longer required for the purposes pursued (right of erasure).

If the legal requirements are met, you may request us to restrict processing, e.g. if you have contested the processing of your personal data for a period enabling us to check your objection. You have the right to object at any time to the processing of personal data for reasons arising from your particular situation. We will then no longer process the personal data unless we can prove, according to legal requirements, legitimate grounds for the processing, which override your rights.

You have the right to receive your personal data in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and to transmit those data to another controller when the processing is carried out by automated means (right to data portability).
